

Entry 70: Laramie Project 6

Directions	Read the newspaper articles carefully. Respond thoughtfully to the prompts below. Your response should neatly fill 1¼ to 1½ pages.
Hate	The murders of Matthew Shepard, Robert Maricle, and Gwen Araujo were hate crimes of the most extreme variety. Reflect on how and why hatred moves from thoughts, to unkind words, to acts of violence, and to murder.
Intolerance in Action	Come up with a list of scenarios that covers a broad range of situations in which people act with intolerance, ignorance, or hatefulness. If you can think of any you have observed at school or in the community, include them without including names of individuals involved.
Curbing Hatred	Which examples from the previous list would be easiest to stop? Why?
Critical Intervention	In which situations do you believe it would be most important to intervene when you see intolerance? Why?
Personal Willingness	In which situations would you be willing to intervene? Why? What would you do?

Entry 70: Laramie Project 6

Directions	Read the newspaper articles carefully. Respond thoughtfully to the prompts below. Your response should neatly fill 1¼ to 1½ pages.
Hate	The murders of Matthew Shepard, Robert Maricle, and Gwen Araujo were hate crimes of the most extreme variety. Reflect on how and why hatred moves from thoughts, to unkind words, to acts of violence, and to murder.
Intolerance in Action	Come up with a list of scenarios that covers a broad range of situations in which people act with intolerance, ignorance, or hatefulness. If you can think of any you have observed at school or in the community, include them without including names of individuals involved.
Curbing Hatred	Which examples from the previous list would be easiest to stop? Why?
Critical Intervention	In which situations do you believe it would be most important to intervene when you see intolerance? Why?
Personal Willingness	In which situations would you be willing to intervene? Why? What would you do?