

Entry 138: Telling Details—Catcher in the Rye

Overview	Several new characters are introduced in chapters 9 and 10. Think about the characters Holden talks about in these chapters, and the kinds of details he gives readers about them. Find three interesting, character-revealing details that Holden provides about any of the characters.
Detail One	Introduce the passage briefly, and then record it accurately, with page number. Explain how and why the detail is particularly revealing (what do you learn about the character from the information?) as well as why you found interesting (what made it stand out to you?). Finally, explore what you learn about Holden from the information. What do you learn about his likes, dislikes, attitudes, etc., from what he notices and shares with readers?
Detail Two	Repeat instructions for Detail One.
Detail Three	Repeat instructions for Detail One.
